Product Introduction

Warranty and Indemnity Insurance provides protection to the buyer against breaches of the warranties and indemnities being given by the seller.

This is designed to protect the buyer from financial loss that may arise as a result of a breach of warranty where either the buyer is unable to or chooses not to claim under the Special Purchase Agreement. The buyer may be concerned about the seller's financial standing post-completion and whether it will have the resources one to two years after closing. Alternatively, the seller may seek to cap its exposure at a very low quantum so that it can make a clean "exit" with limited or no residual risk. In the light of market uncertainties, there has been resistance on part of sellers to provide indemnities and therefore, this cover is being taken by buyers increasingly.

What are the Conditions applicable to this Policy?

I. Subrogation

- A. If the Underwriters make any payment to the Insured under this Policy, the Underwriters shall be subrogated to (or may require the Insured to assign to the Underwriters) all of the Insured's rights of recovery against any person arising out of or relating to such payment other than any member of the Target Group. The Underwriters may require the Insured to procure that the Underwriters are subrogated to (or that the Underwriters have assigned to it) the rights of recovery of the Target Group against any person, other than (i) any member of the Target Group, or (ii) subject to the provisions of point (B) under subrogation clause mentioned below, any Seller, in each case arising out of or relating to such payment.
- B. The Underwriters shall only be entitled to subrogate against the Seller if the payment under the Policy of Loss arose in whole or in part out of the Seller's fraud or dishonest misconduct.
- C. The Insured shall, and to the extent possible shall cause their respective Affiliates to, execute all documentation reasonably required and take all reasonable steps to secure and further any subrogation or assignment rights under I.A. above. In no event shall the Insured or its respective Affiliates waive any rights that could affect any such subrogation or assignment.
- D. Any amounts recovered by the Underwriters as a result of subrogation or assignment of rights shall be applied firstly to reimburse the Underwriters for any costs and expenses incurred in connection with such recovery, secondly to reimburse the Insured for any Loss borne by it in excess of the Limit of Liability under this Policy and which provided the basis for such subrogation or assignment recovery, thirdly to reimburse the Underwriters in respect of any Loss which the Underwriters have paid pursuant to this Policy and fourthly to reimburse the Insured in respect of any Loss which the Insured has retained under the Retention and which provided the basis for such subrogation or assignment recovery.
- E. The Insured shall defend at their own expense, and be liable for, any counterclaim or third party demand asserted in connection with any assignment or subrogation claim pursued by the Underwriters, except to the extent such counterclaim or third party demand arises out of the same facts and allegations as the assignment or subrogation claim or would itself lead to a Breach in which event the Underwriters shall defend and indemnify the Insured with respect to such counterclaim or third party demand.

II. Notice Of Breach Or Third Party Demand

- A. The Insured shall deliver notice of a Breach or Third Party Demand (or of facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a Breach or Third Party Demand) to the Underwriters at the address stated in Item 12 of the Policy Schedule signed by a director, an executive officer or other authorised signatory of the Insured as soon as reasonably practicable after the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer or General Counsel of the Insured acquires Actual Knowledge of such Breach or Third Party Demand (or of facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a Breach or Third Party Demand), and in any event during the Policy Period or within number of Business Days as mentioned in Policy Schedule, after the end of the Policy Period; provided that, a delay or failure in delivering notice to the Underwriters will not affect the Underwriter's obligations or the Insured's rights hereunder unless, and to the extent, such delay actually prejudices the Underwriter's interests or to the extent that Loss is increased by such delay. For the avoidance of doubt, the Insured shall deliver such notice in each such instance regardless of whether the matters described in such notice will, or are reasonably expected to, give rise to Loss that is within the Retention.

- B. Notice of a Breach or Third-Party Demand (or of facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a Breach or Third Party Demand) shall describe, to the Insured's knowledge in reasonable detail and to the extent then known and in view of the relevant information that is available, the basis of the Breach or Third Party Demand and the Insured's good faith estimate of the actual or expected amount of Loss. Subject to compliance with this Clause such Notice of a Breach of Third Party Demand (or of facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a Breach or Third Party Demand) shall not be invalid for failing to provide all necessary facts and circumstances and other details of the basis of the Breach or Third Party Demand.
- C. A deficiency (or alleged deficiency) in the content or timing for delivery of a notice of a Breach or Third Party Demand (or of facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a Breach or Third Party Demand) required under this Clause shall not preclude, limit or otherwise relieve the liability of the Underwriters for the relevant Loss to which such notice relates, except to the extent that the Loss could reasonably be expected to have been able to be mitigated had the notice been delivered absent such deficiency.
- D. As soon as reasonably practicable but in any case within number of Business Days as mentioned in Policy Schedule, of the Underwriters receiving notice of a Breach or Third Party Demand (or of facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a Breach or Third Party Demand) the Underwriters shall respond in writing by acknowledging or denying coverage for the Loss claimed or, if the Underwriters are not in a position to determine whether (or the extent to which) the Loss is covered by this Policy, by requesting such additional information as it may reasonably require from the Insured. Where the Underwriters have denied the Loss claimed for or the claimed erosion of the Retention, the Underwriters shall include with such denial the reasons for that denial and a specific reference to the relevant provisions of the Acquisition Agreement or of this Policy in sufficient detail to allow the Insured to assess the denial of coverage. Where the Underwriters have responded to any notice of a Breach or Third Party Demand (or of facts or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a Breach or Third Party Demand) delivered to the Underwriters by the Insured by acknowledging liability for the claimed Loss, and the quantum of such Loss has been agreed, the Underwriters shall make due payment as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event no later than number of Business Days as mentioned in Policy Schedule, after it has confirmed acknowledgement of such Loss.
- E. All notices under any provision of this Policy must be made in writing and delivered to the applicable party by prepaid express courier, certified mail or electronic mail. Notices given as described above shall be deemed to be received and effective upon actual receipt thereof by the addressee to the respective address set forth below (or at such other address for a party as shall be specified by similar notice).

Such notice shall comply with Clauses under Notice of Breach or Third Party Demand.

III. Defence And Settlement

- A. The Underwriters have no duty to defend the Insured under this Policy with respect to any Third-Party Demand or otherwise.

If the Insured requests in writing, the Underwriters shall, subject to the De Minimis and provided that the Retention has been fully exhausted, reimburse the Insured within number of business days as mentioned in Policy Schedule, after the end of each calendar quarter for Defence Costs incurred and billed during such calendar quarter, notwithstanding that the Third-Party Demand may not have been settled or finally determined.
- C. If the Insured does not consent to a settlement, compromise or discharge recommended by the Underwriters (acting reasonably) and which is acceptable to the relevant third party in respect of a Third Party Demand, the Insured shall not be prevented from defending the Third Party Demand further, but the Underwriters' liability under this Policy for such Loss shall not exceed the amount the Underwriters would have paid if such settlement, compromise or discharge had been made as recommended plus Defence Costs incurred up until that point.
- D. Provided, and to the extent that this is within the Insured's control and is permitted under applicable laws and regulations, the Underwriters shall be entitled to participate fully (at their own cost and expense) in the defence, negotiation and settlement of any Breach or Third Party Demand that may reasonably be expected to give rise to a claim under this Policy. The Insured shall, so far as the Insured is lawfully able and to the extent within its power, control and ability to do so:

- a) Not settle, compromise or discharge any Breach or Third Party Demand without prior consultation with and the prior written consent of the Underwriters (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed);
- b) to the extent reasonably practicable and permitted under applicable laws and regulations, provide the Underwriters with copies of all relevant correspondence, pleadings (and other documents relevant to any arbitration) and other documents or information received or made by the Insured that relate to the Breach or Third Party Demand (at the Underwriters' sole cost and expense) and to the extent possible afford the Underwriters reasonably sufficient time in which to review and comment on such documentation, provided the Underwriters shall, to the extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations and reasonably practicable, ensure and preserve the privilege and confidential status of any information shared in connection with this Policy;
- c) to the extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations and reasonably practicable, permit the Underwriters (at the Underwriters' sole cost and expense) to reasonably examine and take extracts from the books, records, data and other information of the Insured and the Target Group that are relevant to the Breach or Third Party Demand and grant the Underwriters reasonable access (with reasonable advance written notice being given to the Insured) to the Insured's and the Target Group's representatives for interviews and witness statements during normal business hours and in reasonable locations and without undue interruption of the Target Group;
- d) to the extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations and reasonably practicable, keep the Underwriters reasonably informed of proposed meetings with the Target Group or the Seller or any other relevant third party in connection with any Breach or Third Party Demand and where the Underwriters reasonably request in writing, allow the Underwriters to attend such meetings and, where it is impractical for the Underwriters to attend and where the Underwriters so request in writing provide a written description to the Underwriters of the outcome of meetings and material discussions to which the Underwriters were not present; and
- e) to the extent permitted under applicable laws and regulations and reasonably practicable, at the Underwriters' sole cost and expense, provide the Underwriters with such other information and assistance (with any assistance reasonably necessitating the incurrence by the Underwriters of reasonable third party external costs to be at the Underwriters' cost and not form part of Loss) in connection with any Breach or Third Party Demand as the Underwriters may reasonably request in writing.

The Underwriters shall cooperate in good faith with the Insured to preserve the privileged status of any correspondence, pleading or other document provided pursuant to this point D under Defence and Settlement. Any privileged or protected information or materials need not be provided to the Underwriters unless and until the privileged or protected status of such information and materials can reasonably be assured.

Any inadvertent failure to comply with this Clause shall not relieve the Underwriters of their obligations under this Policy except to the extent the Underwriters are adversely affected thereby.

Closing occurs under the Acquisition Agreement before the Longstop Date (as that term is defined under the Acquisition Agreement) in accordance with clause of the Acquisition Agreement as mentioned in Policy Schedule , without any waiver or amendment of the parties' obligations in clauses and Schedules of the Acquisition Agreement as mentioned in Policy Schedule unless the Underwriters have given prior written consent to such waiver or amendment (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and the Underwriters confirm that they will not withhold consent for changes which do not adversely affect them, or in the opinion of the Underwriters, acting reasonably, is unlikely to adversely affect them in any material respect). If the Underwriters' consent is sought by the Insured under this Clause to an amendment to or waiver of such obligations and the Underwriters do not respond to the Insured's request in writing within number of Business Days as mentioned in Policy Schedule of receipt of the Insured's request, the Underwriters' will be deemed to have granted their consent to the requested amendment or waiver;
