Business Interruption Loss shall comprise of:

- a. The amount that the Company's net operating profit (excluding profits out of capital and investment gains and before tax) during the Indemnity Period falls back behind the projected Company's net operating profit for that period as a direct result of the total or partial unavailability of the Company's Computer System. For the purpose of projecting the net operating profit during the Indemnity Period which would have been earned if the Business Interruption had not occurred, the Company's revenues during the 36 months prior to the unavailability will be taken into consideration as well as all relevant trends and business developments that would have affected the Company's net operating profit without the unavailability of the Company's Computer System; and Fixed charges and other operating expenses but only to the extent that such expenses must continue during the Policy Period and to the extent that these expenses are not covered by the Company's revenues as a direct result of the total or partial unavailability of the Company's Computer System.
- b. In calculating the Business Interruption Loss and to come to a result that shall represent as nearly as may be reasonable practicable the results which but for the unavailability of the Company's Computer System would have been obtained during the Indemnity Period, any related benefits shall be calculated against the Business Interruption Loss including but not limited to:
  - i. Any alternative methods used by the Company to maintain its revenue stream,
  - ii. any additional profits at another location of the Company or at a later time, but not later than 6 months after the unavailability of the Company's Computer System that are caused by the same impairment (shift of profits) shall be calculated against the Business Interruption Loss or
  - iii. any sums saved during the Indemnity Period in respect of any variable charges and expenses of the Company which may cease or be reduced as a consequence of the unavailability of the Company's Computer System

Business Interruption Loss shall not include:

- i. loss resulting from suspension, cancellation or lapse of any lease, contract, license or orders by the Company,
- ii. fines and damages for breach of contract or for late or noncompletion of orders,
- iii. penalties of any nature.

5. Other Currency

In the event that a Loss is suffered in a currency other than the currency stated in the Schedule, the rate of exchange applicable thereto for the purposes of determining the valuation of Loss shall be the closing average rate on Discovery

(or if Discovered during a weekend or national holiday, on the next business day thereafter)

6. Transfer of Rights of Recovery against Others (Subrogation)

You shall take all steps necessary or such steps as are required by Us before or after any payment by Us under this Policy to preserve the rights and remedies which You may have to recover the Loss. If any payment is to be made under this Policy in respect of a Claim, We shall be subrogated to all Your rights of recovery whether or not payment has in fact been made and whether or not You have been fully compensated for its actual Loss. We shall be entitled to pursue and enforce such rights in the name of an Insured, who, both before and after payment under this Policy, shall provide Us with all reasonable assistance and co-operation in doing so, including the execution of any necessary instruments and papers. You shall do nothing to prejudice Our rights under this subrogation clause.

We agree not to exercise any such rights of recovery against any insured unless the Claim is brought about or contributed to by the dishonest, fraudulent, intentional criminal or malicious act or omission. In its sole discretion, the Insurer may, in writing, waive any of its rights set forth in this Subrogation Clause.

Any amounts recovered in accordance with this clause shall be applied in the following order:

- (i) to compensate Us and You for the costs incurred in making the recovery (such payment to be allocated between Us and You in the same proportions as they have borne the costs thereof); and
- (ii) to Us up to the amount of the Loss paid by Us; and
- (iii) to You in respect of any uninsured element of the Claim (including the Deductible).
